In Memoriam Julie Anne

Julie Van Horn

I had a talk with God last night,
He said lend to me your ear.
I have a little message that
I would like for you to hear.

I walked the streets of South Vienna,
One crisp December day.
And although it really hurt me,
I called one of yours away.

I would like to thank her family,
For they raised her pure and true.
She makes a perfect angel on
Her throne beyond the blue.

I wish that you could see her,
As she walks the golden stair.
Her eyes shine like diamonds,
And there is glitter in her hair.

She is really very happy now,
Her life on earth is done.
Her parents gave to me an angel,
As my Father gave His son.

ROGER STEWART

Deborah Cooley

She Is Away

You cannot say, and you must not say
That she is dead, she is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
She has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there,
And you - O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return,
Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of her still as the same and say:
She is not dead - she is just away!

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY

1971 Annual Staff

Co-Editor Bob Miller and Co-School Personnel Editor Doug Kincaid look over a few of the multitude of pictures which flooded the staff, making the job of choosing pictures even harder.

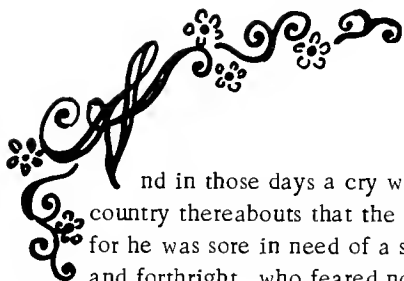

The Editors of the 1971 Jet would like to take this opportunity to thank the Camera Club and Russ Overman Studios for the fine pictures taken this year and wish the Jet staff of 1972 good luck in putting their annual together.

Sincerely,
Co-Editor Bob Miller and
Mr. Ark, Advisor

Yearbook Genesis

nd in those days a cry went out to all the country thereabouts that the King was wailing, for he was sore in need of a scribe, courageous and forthright, who feared not a hard day's labor.

2 Now it came to pass that the cry of the King fell upon the ears of the Arkangel Stephen, who, meeting all of the above qualifications but three, hearkened unto that cry.

3 And the King sought audience with Stephen and there told him of the yearbook that would go unprinted should a lowly scribe he had in mind not volunteer to guide the project.

4 But Stephen hesitated and lo, the King made mention of a government project, a certain lions' den under construction nearby.

5 And Stephen, in a flash, saw the light and accepted the task, and went his way muttering oaths not of allegiance.

6 Only now did the king have second thoughts saying, "I would that the seeds of my cry had fallen upon more fertile soil."

CHAPTER II

nd so it happened that the angel Stephen went out unto the people in search of assistance.

2 He looked among the lowly and sick of mind and his search was fruitful, for in that area the lowly and sick of mind were not rare.

3 And among those he gathered unto him first were Bob the Miller and Anita of the Barnes. Others of their ilk followed suit and soon a great multitude had gathered, unique for its predominant femininity.

4 No hush fell upon that multitude, but Stephen spoke anyway, saying, "Go ye in pairs unto the factories and funeral homes and gather what gold ye can with the selling of advertisements."

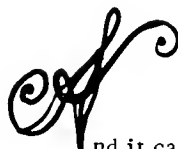

5 And it was done so, and the treasury was filled to overflowing.

6 Next he spoke unto a younger section of the multitude, about fifteen in number, saying above the tumult, "Go ye unto the remaining sick of mind and sell yearbook subscriptions."

7 This too was done and once more the treasury overflowed with gold.

8 And from out of the North came three savage horsemen, Chamberlain, Barber and Haverkos by name, barbarians all.

9 And they spoke to the angel offering the aid of their minds, such as they were, and giving no little help and much free advice.

CHAPTER III

nd it came to pass that the tasks were divided and the work begun.

2 Marcella and Anita, Jill and Betsy G., Claudia and Bev, Kathy and Janeen, Doug and John, Betsy D. and Janet - these few began the business of begetting a yearbook.

3 But lo, they soon discovered that the angel Stephen, though indeed an angel, knew nothing of yearbooks, and they were sore afraid.

4 But mostly sore.

5 Yet the task, thanks to the efforts of the staff and in spite of the efforts of Stephen, was accomplished - yea, was well accomplished. You have before you the product of their numerous efforts.

6 And may I say that on just one other occasion have so many owed so much to so few.

7 My thanks to the staff which comforted me.

Sincerely and forever indebted,
the angel

Troxell tries to turn his opponent over for a pin.

Another pin for the Jet wrestlers.

The Wrestling Team of Northeastern has had a very unusual situation for the past two years. This situation can be summed up in five letters, PAUGH. Senior Dan and Junior Dale have a very impressive record on the mat. Dan had a three year varsity record of 81-11 and won the League 2 years and competed in the State competition two years. Dale, with a year still remaining, has also compiled a fine record and has won the League 1 year. He might have traveled to Columbus for the State matches but was sidelined by a rib injury in a Sectional meet. Congratulations to Dan for his three years of success and good luck to Dale in his Senior year of grappling.

Members of the squad pose after a meet.

Their enthusiasm is sometimes completely overwhelming.

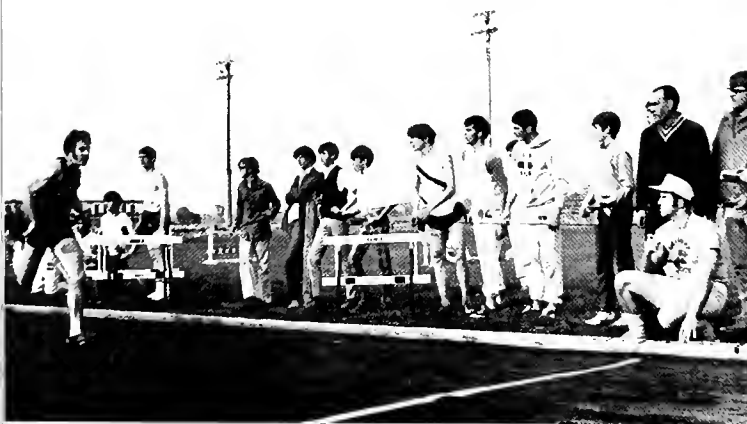

Shotputter Bryce Banion shows his form while bettering his best effort by two feet.

John Hutchins keeps stride with his opponents in the 120 yard high hurdles.

Sophomore Pole Vaulter Steve Paugh clears the bar at 10 feet.

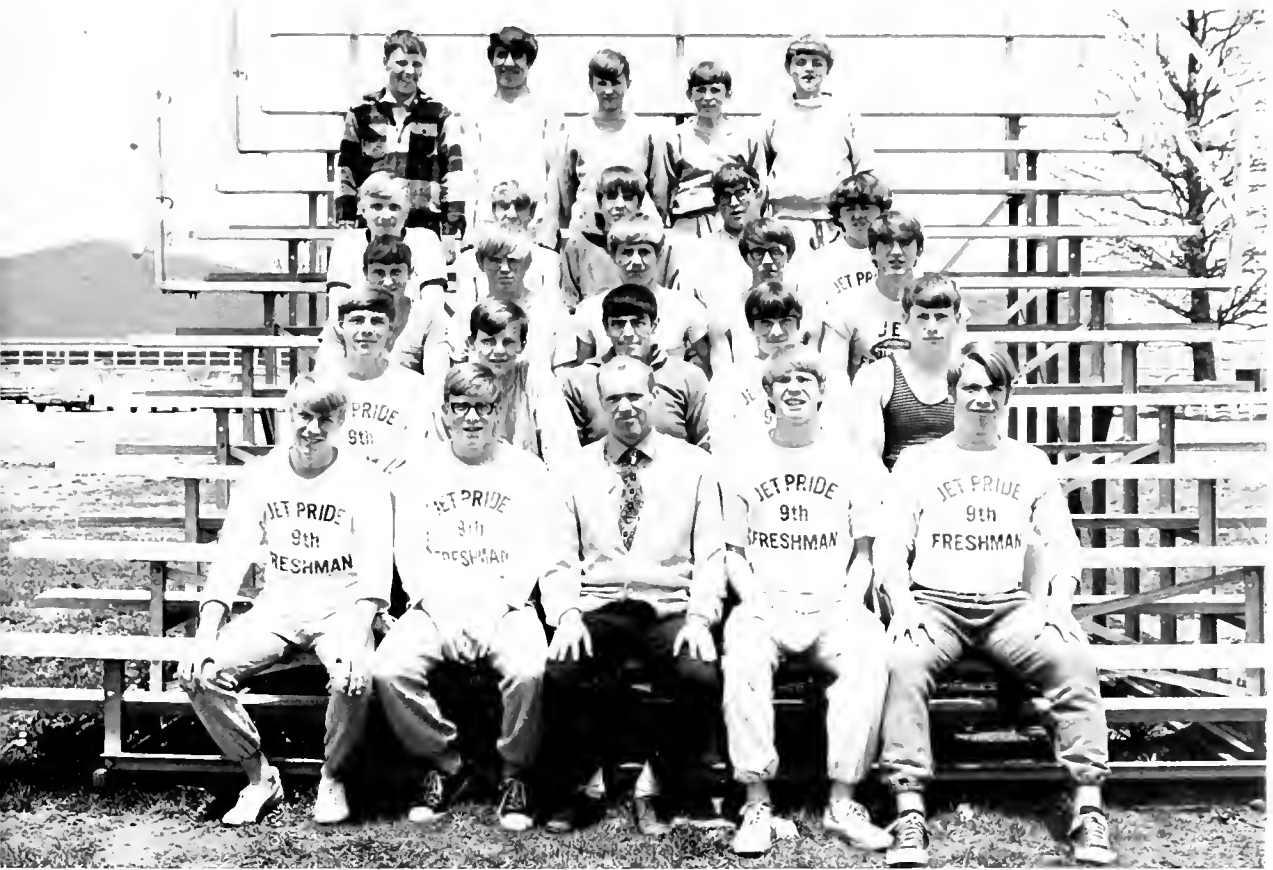

Dale Hoover wins the 220 yard dash by a sizeable margin.

Scorekeeper Carolyn Aronhalt provides the entertainment between events.

Vice-President: Robert Allen
Secretary: Jean Kohn
Treasurer: James Cooke

CLASS MOTTO: We have journeyed through the past; now we stand on the threshold of the future.

CLASS GIFT:
New Stage Curtains

CLASS COLORS:
Purple and White

The guest speaker was Clarence T. Brown Jr. His speech was on the topic, "Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Graduation, But Were Afraid to Ask."

Mr. Price has been a great help through all our high school years.

Yes, and someday we'll be old enough to graduate too.

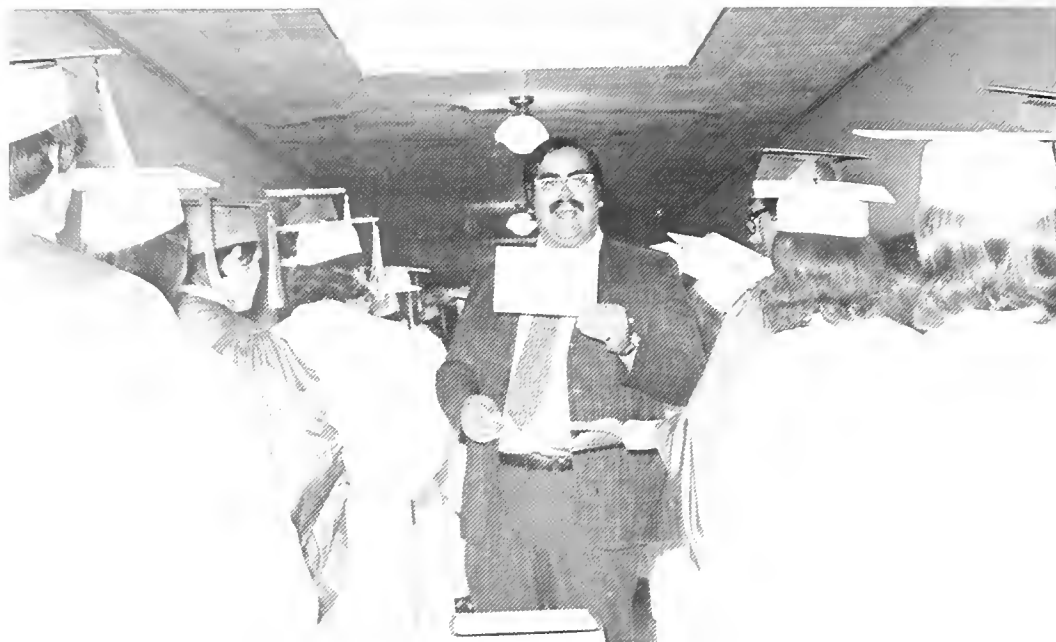

Seniors line up.

Senior Choir members sing for the last time with the rest of the choir.

The diplomas are awarded.

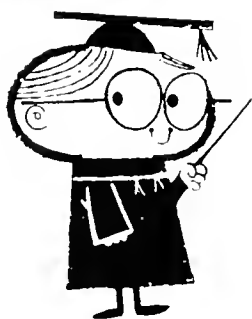

In my left hand I am holding the names of the seniors that didn't pass!

Oh no! Don't tell me I'm one of them!

Don't look at me like that. I'm a Senior.

So I graduated. So what? Any bright young, intelligent boy like me could have done it.

I wish she would hurry up
I'm getting out of step.

Yep, that's me. Dale Cool!
